Yellow warning
Thunderstorm

Between 12:40 Sun 10 Sep 2023 and
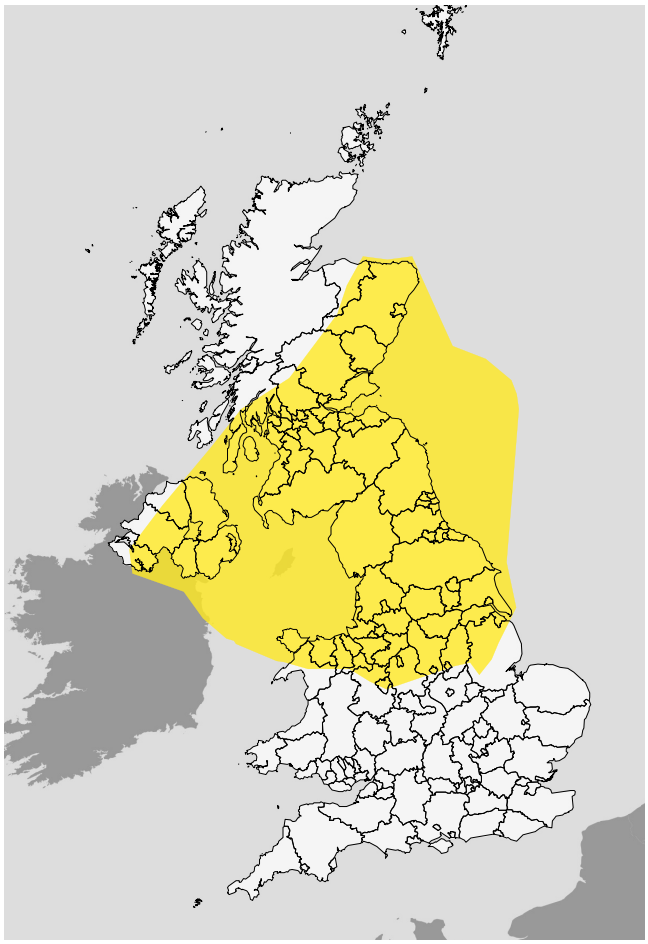
23:59 Sun 10 Sep 2023



Thunderstorms may bring disruption during Sunday afternoon and evening.

What to expect

- Flooding of homes and businesses could happen quickly, with damage to some buildings from floodwater, lightning strikes, hail or strong winds
- Where flooding or lightning strikes occur, there is a chance of delays and some cancellations to train and bus services
- Spray and sudden flooding could lead to difficult driving conditions and some road closures
- Some communities might become cut off if roads flood
- Power cuts might occur and other services to some homes and businesses could be lost
- Fast flowing or deep floodwater is possible, causing a danger to life

Further details

An area of thunderstorms is expected to develop over parts of England and Wales on Sunday then move north and northeast into Northern Ireland and parts of Scotland.

Some large areas of rain are likely but many parts will see modest rainfall amounts. However, embedded intense rainfall may bring some very large totals with 30-50 mm in an hour or less possible and perhaps 70 mm or more in a few hours for unlucky locations.

At the same time frequent lightning and large hail will be additional hazards.

Low likelihood of medium impacts
